He also argues that the seventy-two hour waiting period requirement of the Act violates his Fourteenth Amendment right to travel. However, he fails to specify any reason why this is so. The fact that he may seek care elsewhere in a case of emergency does not create a fundamental right to do so, and the right to travel does not guarantee a right to compel medical treatment. Finally, he argues that the Act violates his Fourteenth Amendment right to due process of law. However, again, he fails to specify why this is so. As a matter of due process, he argues that the "adverse effects" of the Act could render him unable to afford medical treatment and, therefore, render him unable to defend against a criminal charge. Redknapp has revealed his side's best XI for an FA
Cup tie at Nottingham Forest. The R's entertain City on Saturday in their first-round replay at Loftus Road. They will go into the game as underdogs, having lost the original tie 2-1 at City's City Ground. Forest have yet to win at home in the competition this season and Redknapp picked a team which has been boosted by the withdrawal of Marouane Chamakh. It was a 12-man line-up fielded for the league meeting with Leicester City in midweek. Redknapp said: "There's players injured, the way Chamakh's injured. He can't play, but I said to the players last Tuesday, I think, when I was getting the team ready, I said to them, 'We are playing Forest in the FA Cup.’ “I think it’s a very good thing we’ve got this game.’ “We’ve got a chance to get out there and see what we’re capable of doing.” Redknapp, who has little faith in Forest’s ability to create chances in the Championship, added: “It’s about if we can match Forest, we will.

“I think we have that quality. If we can match Forest and score goals then we are in with a chance. “They have a lot of players who can turn a game, so we just have to be very careful that we don’t concede.”
