Q: Cranford Cafe and the detective who solved the case The entire story of the Cranford Cafe relies on the fact that I missed the question mark in the first sentence. I feel sure that I could recognize a question mark from just those few letters. A: The missing question mark has remained as a mystery since the movie was released. It was released in the Spring of 1937 in New York, at the Leland Theater on Broadway at West 47th Street, as a seven-reel Chaplin short Wikipedia - The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari The text of the question mark in the original question on IMDB would also not have matched the title, for which it was used: Also in my mind it was longer than 8 letters. I was only half right. I calculated the length of the Cranford Cafe's signage, hoping to
